

The National Forest Wood Fair 2011

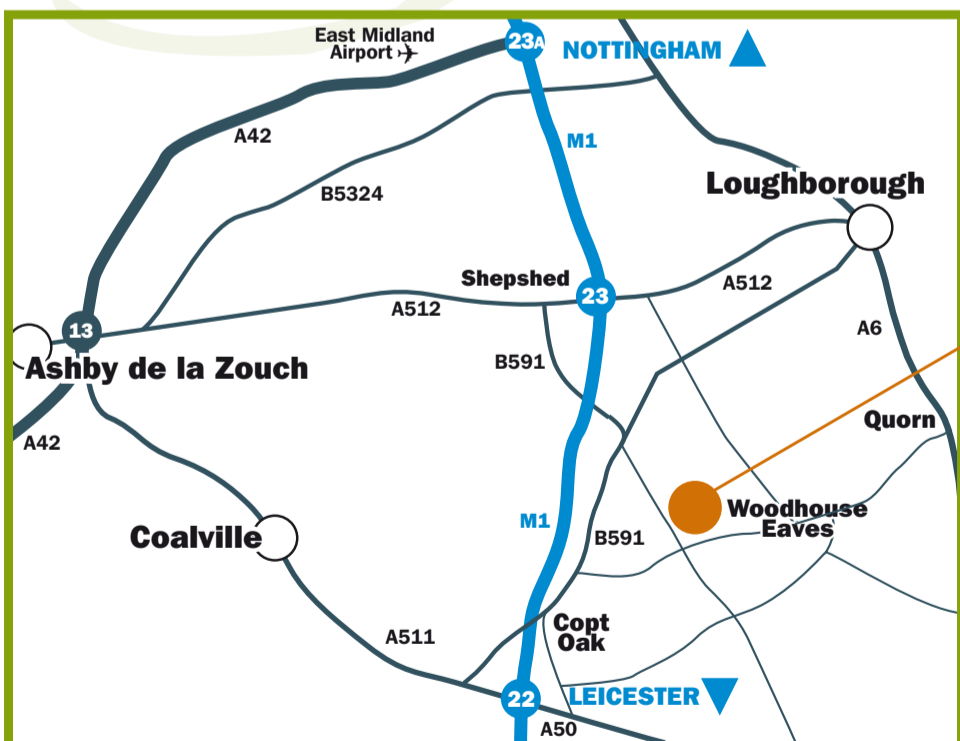

Bank Holiday Monday 29th August, 10am-5pm

-  Live demonstrations of wood crafts and chainsaw sculpting
-  A great day out for all the family
-  Children's activities: storytelling, eco-art, climbing wall, birds of prey
-  See forestry in action from horse logging to heavy duty woodchippers
-  Delicious local food and drink
-  Exciting lumberjack show, Bodger's Corner and charity auction

Read more on www.leics.gov.uk/woodfair

Enter via Upper
Beacon
Car
Park

FREE Park and Ride from Leicestershire County Council's County Hall and entry discount for cyclists.

Supported by emda and the Forestry Commission through the 'Making Woods Work Programme'.

Beacon Hill Country Park, Leicestershire, LE12 8SP

Admission: Adults £8, Concessions £5, Families £18 (includes parking) Enquiries: 01283 551 211